Study Lounge sponsored by Berklee Core Music Tutoring

This is a collaboration initiative with the Learning Center. These sessions will be informal virtual study halls where students can bring their homework along with any burning questions they may have about harmony.

Each Study Lounge will have a faculty member and or a tutor from the learning Center. Study Lounges will be during weeks 4 - 8 in the Spring 2021 semester for MAT, Harmony 2, Harmony 3, & Harmony 4.

Stay Tuned for Links.

Listening Sessions w/Professor Rick McLaughlin

Join Professor Rick McLaughlin in a virtual hang, where you can bring your latest musical interests and inspiration. This can be a space to listen, and it also can be a space to share your own latest inspirations, whether it be an artist you recently discovered, or a specific piece/tune/song. This event is open to all Harmony students, past and present, as well as jazz composition majors.

Academic Coaching

Academic coaching is a service offered through Accessibility Resources for Students. Students are able to meet one-on-one with a professional academic coach. The student and the coach work together to identify areas of growth as well as strategies that may increase success in the classroom and beyond. Coaching is personalized, so the focus of each session is based on individual needs. Some common topics include time management, study skills, organization, self-advocacy, procrastination, and motivation.

Coronavirus Remote Engagement in Campus Life

As we launch our remote fall semester, the Campus Life team has been working to identify ways to get you involved and keep you engaged with you while you are remote. While we can't offer movie tickets, discounted memberships, MBTA passes, or many of our traditional services, our current offerings include:

- continuing to support clubs from afar;
- working with the Student Government Association (SGA) to make sure the student voice is still represented within the campus community;
- increased social media activity to encourage staying in touch; and
- remote engagement oppor
